

RIJKSMUSEUM WALLPAPER

MADE BY BY NLXL

After the worldwide succes of Scrapwood and Materials Wallpaper, Piet Hein Eek and NLXL introduce Rijksmuseum Wallpaper, comprising 5 designs.

Rick Vintage, NLXL Creative Director: "There was something in the air. While working on the idea of a Rijksmuseum collection I sent a text to Piet Hein Eek to show him what we were working on. He replied with an image of a cupboard he designed, printed with the exact same image we used in our try-outs. Right there and then we decided to present this collection together in Milan."

Piet Hein Eek: "By taking what's there as a source of inspiration I try to connect past and future in a pragmatic and natural way. Surprisingly enough this urge to do what's obvious often provides innovative products and concepts."
