

CASSIA PENDANT

BY IN COMMON WITH

A ceramic disc pendant born of an experiment in geometry. The fixture's flat, slab-built face is flanked by symmetrical orbs—a small clay dome on one side, a glass orb on the other—and pairs clean lines with organic texture. Cassia is finished with solid brass hardware and suspended from a rod on a self-leveling canopy.

Dimensions

For detailed information, please click here.